

To Access the Gale Database, choose the West Salem LIBRARY page.

Choose Online Databases

Select OSLIS (I know, counterintuitive—it works)

It will give you these options:

Broad Coverage for HS  Tutorial (Former name: Student Resources In Context)	Broad Coverage for MS  Tutorial (Former name: Research In Context)	Computer Skills, Test Prep, & More  Questions?
Broad Coverage for HS  Tutorial (Former name: InfoTrac Student)	Literature  Tutorial	What to read next?  Tutorial
Newspapers  Oregonian Other Oregon Newspapers (Former name: InfoTrac Newsstand)	eBooks  Tutorial (Former name: GVRL)	All Gale Databases  Tutorial
Información en Español	Opposing Viewpoints	U.S. History

Choose All Gale Databases.

It will look like this:

These Gale databases are available to Oregonians.
Use the one option that applies to you in order to access the databases.

I know my Gale login. USERNAME & PASSWORD Username <input type="text"/> Password <input type="password"/> Log In	OR	I don't know my login, but I go to a public school in Oregon. PUBLIC SCHOOLS Enter Your School District Name <input type="text" value="SALEM KEIZER School District"/> Select	OR	I don't know my login, but I go to a private school or I am homeschooled in Oregon. PRIVATE SCHOOLS Enter Your School Name <input type="text" value="Start Typing"/> Select
---	----	--	----	--

Choose the middle option and SELECT or TYPE Salem Keizer School District.

You are in! Proceed with the Gale Databases as normal.
